

Wednesday, July 23, 2008

Duxbury Clipper

Bookmarks and Westwinds book release party

Westwinds Bookshop and the Duxbury Free Library's Teen Advisory Group, the Bookmarks, are hosting a midnight party for the release of Stephenie Meyer's fourth novel in the "Twilight" series, "Breaking Dawn," on Friday, August 1 from 10:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. at Westwinds Bookshop.

Admission is $5, which is waived if a person pre-orders a copy of "Breaking Dawn" from Westwinds.

The group will be hosting a donation box for World Wildlife Fund in order to save wolves and other endangered species.

Events planned are: look-a-like contests, a "dress Bella as a bride" in toilet paper contest, an open mike for poetry, music and "what might happen in 'Breaking Dawn'" prose...and of course, the count down to midnight when everyone can receive copies of "Breaking Dawn." Refreshments will be provided. Anyone over the age of 13 is invited.